Financial Center Credit Union is now Valley Strong Credit Union

SAN JOAQUIN COUNTY – Valley Strong Credit Union is excited to announce that Financial Center Credit Union and its more than 30,000 Members and six branches in San Joaquin County are now part of the Valley Strong family.

The merger between Valley Strong Credit Union and Financial Center Credit Union received regulatory approval as well as consent by an overwhelming majority of Financial Center's Members in September 2021.

Combined, the organization is operating under the Valley Strong name, with President/CEO Nick Ambrosini leading the credit union. The organization's joint assets are approximately $3.5 billion and will serve more than 260,000 Members with 30 branches throughout the San Joaquin Valley from Lodi to Tehachapi.

Former Members of FCCU will benefit from Valley Strong's enhanced top-of-the-line products, competitive rates, digital banking options and 30,000 co-op ATMs.

Valley Strong branches are located in Kern, San Joaquin, Solano, and Tulare/Kings counties. The six, former Financial Center branches in San Joaquin County are in Lodi, Manteca, and Stockton.

Valley Strong Credit Union

Valley Strong Credit Union operates 30 branches, serving more than 260,000 individuals, with approximately $3.5 billion in assets. It remains one of the largest financial institutions headquartered in the Central Valley.
